SENATOR DICK OF OHIO

A CALLER AT SUMMER CAPITAL.

Tells the President What the Ohio Platform Will Contain.

Beverly, Mass., July 15.—President Taft was told today that the Ohio republican state platform to be adopted at Columbus the latter part of this month will contain a ringing endorsement of the entire Taft administration, including the Payne-Aldrich tariff law. It is proposed that the form of endorsement to be written into the Ohio platform shall serve as a model to other states that intend standing loyally by Mr. Taft.

The Ohio platform, taken in connection with the keynote speech to be delivered by Representative Nicholas Longworth as temporary chairman, will serve as an index to the effect to be waged throughout the country by the republicans this fall. The issue of the congressional campaign will be set forth clearly.

These facts were developed here today as the result of calls of the president by Senator Dick of Ohio, and Wade H. Chamberlain, chairman of the Ohio republican state executive committee. Both Senator Dick and Chairman Chamberlain came to Beverly to see the president by chance, but it enabled them to place matters more squarely before the president. Both will be here tomorrow for a further conference with Mr. Taft. The latter is taking a deep interest in the platform to be adopted at Columbus, and this afternoon he held a private conference, which will be held July 26-28.

The president made it plain, however, that he will have no candidate for governor in Ohio or of any other state during the campaign. Neither will he have a "personal representative" in Ohio or of any other state. He expressed the state shall manage their own affairs.

For Sale and To Rent

When looked at with a business eye it is clear that the managers of all newspapers are doing business for what there is in it for the concern they represent. They have newspapers for sale and advertising space for rent. Can anyone tell us why he should be expected to give away either the one or the other? He can if he chooses, and does as a matter of fact, furnish a good deal of space rent free. But it does not follow that he ought to be expected to do so. It ought to be recognized as would be the giving of sugar or coffee by the grocer. But, strange to say, it is not looked upon in that light at all, and yet everybody knows that the existence of a newspaper depends upon the rent of its space and the sale of paper. Just the same as a merchant's success depends on selling his goods instead of giving them away.

The St. Paul Due Today, the Cedric on Sunday—The Police of London Are Without Any Clue.

London, July 15.—The police of London are without any clue as to the whereabouts of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen or Ethel Clara Levene, his typist, whom they are seeking in the belief that they may be able to clear up the mystery surrounding the body of a woman which was found badly mutilated in the cellar of the doctor's home in Hilltop Crescent, North London. The police and detectives of Scotland Yard are still of the belief that the dead woman was the wife of Dr. Crippen and that she was murdered, and buried in the cellar in the hope of hiding the crime.

NO STRIKE YET CALLED ON PENNSYLVANIA LINES

Rumors that Order Would Be Given During Friday Night.

Philadelphia, July 15.—Nothing developed in the wage controversy between the conductors and trainmen on the Pennsylvania lines east of Pittsburgh, and the officials of the company today said that would indicate that the strike between the two parties is closing.

The general committee of the railroad men did not meet the officials of the company today, as to what they had to say. The negotiations were broken off late yesterday afternoon.

Rumors that were in circulation all day that a strike would be called some time tonight were quieted by A. B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, who said that a strike would not be called tonight and nine o'clock tomorrow morning. He said he did not mean that one would be called at that hour, but fixed nine o'clock as the time up to which nothing will happen, because the trainmen's committee would not meet until after 9 a. m.

Mr. Garretson would not say that a strike would be called, but he was tenting himself with the statement that he did not know when a strike order would be issued.

The general committee of the employees held several meetings today behind closed doors and as usual nothing was given out as to what was transpiring. Rumors that a new position might be made or that the committee may make some other move were circulated but could not be confirmed.

Altoona, Pa., July 15.—This afternoon the 12,000 employees of the Pennsylvania railroad along in this city were called to the desk in their respective departments and interrogated as to the capacity in which they would be willing to serve in the event of a strike of railroad conductors and trainmen.

They were specifically asked whether they would serve as brakemen, deputies or watchmen. The responses were generally favorable to the company, although the large majority named the position of watchman.
